Friend,

I wanted to take a moment to write to you about the ICE raids that the Trump administration had authorized to begin today.

Terrorizing those seeking a better life in our country is inhumane and goes against our values as Americans. Though these ICE raids have been temporarily delayed, this delay still uses the fears of families fleeing violence and poverty as part of Donald Trump's political games.

Let me be clear: ICE should never assault people fleeing violence and poverty. We must keep fighting until ICE stops separating families, caging children, and undermining American values.

I will always stand up to dangerous, xenophobic, and racist actions by the Trump administration -- and by anyone else who stokes fear or terror in our communities.
